D. side with France against Britain

Answer key

The correct choice is highlighted. Choices are in a different order than on the real test.

1. Judicial review is the Supreme Court's power to
   1 Pts

A. decide which candidate won a disputed presidential election

B. appoint lower-court judges while the Senate is out of session

C. declare a law unconstitutional, which makes it void

D. remove federal judges who break the law

Why: Removing judges is impeachment, which belongs to Congress (the House charges, the Senate tries), not the Court.

2. Shortly before Congress declared war in June 1812, Britain
   1 Pts

A. agreed to drop the policies against American shipping that had angered the United States

B. announced a blockade of the entire American coast

C. signed an alliance with Napoleon against the United States

D. captured the USS Constitution off Boston

Why: The news crossed the Atlantic too slowly, so the war began after its main cause was gone. The blockade came after the war started.

3. Jefferson's main response to the Chesapeake affair was to
   1 Pts

A. arm every American merchant ship

B. push the Embargo Act through Congress, cutting off American trade with Europe

C. sign a treaty in which Britain gave up impressment

D. ask Congress to declare war on Britain

Why: Jefferson chose peaceful coercion, not war. Asking for war is Madison in 1812.

4. One goal of the Lewis and Clark expedition was to
   1 Pts

A. build a chain of forts along the Pacific coast

B. find gold to pay for the Louisiana Purchase

C. explore and map the new territory and open relations with the Native nations living there

D. push Spain out of Texas

Why: Lewis and Clark were sent to check out what the United States had just bought.

5. Which group in Congress mostly voted against declaring war in 1812?
1 Pts

A. Representatives from Kentucky and Tennessee

B. War Hawks from the West and South

C. Federalists from the coastal Northeast, whose trade depended on Britain

D. Democratic-Republicans who followed Madison

Why: Democratic-Republicans and the War Hawks of the West and South voted for war. New England merchants, already ruined by the Embargo, opposed it.

6. In his first inaugural address, Jefferson
1 Pts

A. called for a larger army and navy

B. tried to reunite the country, saying "We are all Republicans, we are all Federalists"

C. announced that he would close the Bank of the United States

D. promised to fire every Federalist who held a federal job

Why: The message was unity and no revenge. He kept the Bank and paid the debt.

7. Americans saw British impressment as an attack on the nation itself because
1 Pts

A. British agents demanded bribes from American diplomats

B. British officers took sailors, including American citizens, off American ships and forced them into the Royal Navy

C. Britain placed a heavy tax on American imports

D. Britain refused to buy American cotton

Why: Taking citizens off American ships ignored U.S. citizenship and sovereignty. Bribes for diplomats is the XYZ Affair, with France.

8. The trade policies Jefferson and Madison used against Britain and France showed that
1 Pts

A. economic pressure alone could not force Britain and France to respect American rights

B. a boycott hurt Britain far more than it hurt the United States

C. France depended on American trade more than Britain did

D. the U.S. Navy could defeat the Royal Navy

Why: Every act failed. The Embargo hurt the United States more than Britain.

9. In Marbury v. Madison, the Supreme Court ruled that
1 Pts

A. the president may ignore an order of the Court

B. Marbury must receive his commission at once

C. the part of the Judiciary Act of 1789 that let the Court issue writs of mandamus in cases like this was unconstitutional

D. the Judiciary Act of 1801 was unconstitutional

Why: Marbury never got his job. The law struck down was Section 13 of the 1789 act, not the Midnight Judges act of 1801.

10. Early in Jefferson's presidency, Treasury Secretary Albert Gallatin
1 Pts

A. shut down the Bank of the United States

B. raised the whiskey tax

C. cut the army and navy budgets to pay down the national debt

D. created a national sales tax

Why: Wise and frugal government: smaller military, smaller debt. The whiskey tax was repealed, not raised.

11. In the election of 1808,
1 Pts

A. Madison ran with no opponent

B. Madison promised voters a war with Britain

C. Jefferson won a third term

D. the Federalists gained ground by attacking the unpopular Embargo, though Madison still won

Why: Anger over the Embargo helped the Federalists, especially in New England. Jefferson followed the two-term precedent and stepped down.

12. The Embargo of 1807 did the most damage to
1 Pts

A. Great Britain

B. New England

C. the western frontier

D. the South

Why: New England's merchants, shippers and ports were ruined. The Embargo hurt the United States more than Britain.

13. Tecumseh is best known for
1 Pts

A. convincing the Shawnees to adopt American-style farming

B. defeating William Henry Harrison at the Battle of Tippecanoe

C. urging Native nations to set aside old rivalries and unite against American expansion

D. selling Shawnee land to the United States after the Louisiana Purchase

Why: Tippecanoe was an American victory, and Tecumseh was away recruiting when it happened.

14. A direct result of the Louisiana Purchase was that the United States
1 Pts

A. controlled New Orleans and the mouth of the Mississippi River

B. fell into a deep economic depression

C. joined France in an alliance against Britain

D. lost the election of 1804 for Jefferson's party

Why: Western farmers could now ship through New Orleans without asking permission. Jefferson won 1804 in a landslide.

15. Macon's Bill No. 2
1 Pts

A. ended all American trade with Europe

B. banned British goods that could be made in the United States

C. declared war on France

D. reopened trade with Britain and France, promising to cut off the other if either one stopped interfering with American ships

Why: Ending all trade is the Embargo (1807). Banning British goods is the Non-Importation Act (1806).

16. Shortly before Louisiana returned to French control, Spanish officials
1 Pts

A. closed the Mississippi River to French boats

B. invited British troops into the territory

C. handed New Orleans over to the United States

D. took away Americans' right to store goods at New Orleans before shipping them overseas

Why: Losing the right of deposit at New Orleans is what made Jefferson send diplomats to buy the city.

17. Aaron Burr was tried for treason because he
1 Pts

A. sold military secrets to France while vice president

B. allegedly plotted to break off part of the western territory as an independent nation

C. killed Alexander Hamilton in a duel

D. led New York out of the Union

Why: The duel brought murder charges, not treason. The New York secession plot failed when Burr lost the governor's race.

18. Tecumseh believed Native Americans could stop American expansion only by
1 Pts

A. adopting American laws and farming

B. returning to traditional spiritual ways alone

C. moving onto reservations set aside by the government

D. forming one united confederacy of many Native nations

Why: The religious side of the movement belonged to his brother, the Prophet. Tecumseh's answer was political and military unity.

19. Chief Justice John Marshall's most lasting effect was that he
1 Pts

A. refused to hear politically sensitive cases

B. made the Supreme Court a true equal of Congress and the president

C. helped Jefferson remove Federalist judges

D. strengthened the states against the federal government

Why: Marbury v. Madison looked like a loss for Marshall's party but gave the Court judicial review.

20. The Senate's acquittal of Justice Samuel Chase mattered because it
1 Pts

A. protected the courts from being purged for political reasons

B. removed the last Federalist from the Supreme Court

C. proved that judges could be removed for their opinions

D. created Senate hearings for new judges

Why: Chase was charged for politics. Had he been removed, John Marshall was likely next.

21. The Chesapeake affair showed Americans that
1 Pts

A. the American military was weak and unready

B. France had also begun impressing American sailors

C. Britain wanted an alliance with the United States

D. the Embargo was already working

Why: An American warship, guns not even mounted, fired one shot and surrendered. The Embargo came after the affair.

22. Early in Jefferson's presidency, Congress
1 Pts

A. raised military spending

B. ended the Bank of the United States

C. created a national sales tax

D. repealed internal taxes, including the whiskey tax

Why: Jefferson cut taxes and the military but left the Bank alone.

23. Which established the Supreme Court's power of judicial review?
1 Pts

A. The impeachment trial of Samuel Chase

B. The Judiciary Act of 1801

C. The treason trial of Aaron Burr

D. Marbury v. Madison

Why: Burr's trial is the treason case; Chase is the impeachment; the 1801 act created the Midnight Judges.

24. A main goal of Jefferson's when he took office in 1801 was to
1 Pts

A. limit the size and cost of the federal government

B. abolish the Bank of the United States

C. build a federally funded road and canal network

D. side with France against Britain

Why: His phrase was a wise and frugal government. He kept the Bank.
