Name_____

Date_____

Your Life in Christ

Chapters 4 & 5 Test

Jesus as Moral Guide & Conscience Formation

Practice Test B

Part I: Matching (1 point each)

Directions: Match each definition with the correct term from the word bank. Write the letter of the term on the line. Each term is used once; three terms are not used.

A. agape	F. fortitude	K. metanoia
B. Beatitudes	G. fruits of the Holy Spirit	L. peer pressure
C. conscience	H. gifts of the Holy Spirit	M. primacy of conscience
D. evangelical counsels	I. invincible ignorance	N. synderesis
E. examination of conscience	J. martyr	O. vincible ignorance

_____ 1. "The moral virtue that ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of the good."

_____ 2. An outpouring of God's gifts to help you live a Christian life; there are seven, including wisdom, counsel, and piety.

_____ 3. Ignorance about the rightness or wrongness of an action in which one is morally culpable, because it was capable of being overcome.

_____ 4. A practical judgment of reason that helps a person decide the goodness or evil of an action or attitude.

_____ 5. A selfless, giving love that involves sacrifice and long-term commitment.

_____ 6. The eight blessings preached by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount that teach you about the supreme happiness in heaven to which God calls you.

_____ 7. Pressure to go along with the beliefs and actions of others; it can be morally neutral, positive, or negative.

_____ 8. Someone who has suffered and died for the truth of the faith and of Christian doctrine; the word means "witness."

_____ 9. Perfections the Holy Spirit forms in you as the first fruits of eternal glory; there are twelve.

_____ 10. The Greek word for repentance: a turning away from sin with the intention of living a Christian life.

_____ 11. Ignorance in which one is not morally culpable, because despite reasonable effort it was incapable of being overcome.

_____ 12. An honest, prayerful assessment of how well you have lived God's covenant of love.

Part II: True/False and Multiple Choice (1 point each)

Directions: For true/false, write T (true) or F (false) on the line. For multiple choice, circle the letter of the best answer.

13. Which Beatitude ends "for they will be called children of God"?
    a. Blessed are the peacemakers
    b. Blessed are the merciful
    c. Blessed are the meek
    d. Blessed are the clean of heart

_____ 14. Faith enables us to believe in God, all that God has said and revealed, and all that the Church proposes for belief, because God is truth itself.

15. The anawim are
    a. the Pharisees
    b. the twelve apostles
    c. the poor in spirit
    d. those persecuted for righteousness

16. The Beatitude about mercy especially encourages
    a. empathy
    b. strict justice
    c. silence
    d. wealth

_____ 17. Shame means you must be sorry for sin in your heart, mind, and will, and resolve not to sin again.

18. "Blessed are the clean of heart" promises that they
    a. will inherit the land
    b. will be comforted
    c. will see God
    d. will be satisfied

19. Being the salt of the earth means you
    a. stay away from the world
    b. bring flavor to the world and preserve what is good
    c. only care about your own salvation
    d. follow every rule strictly

_____ 20. Jesus came to abolish the Old Law.

21. Jesus fulfills the Old Law by
    a. replacing it with new rules
    b. emphasizing its spirit and intent over a strict interpretation of the letter
    c. removing the Ten Commandments
    d. teaching it only to the apostles

22. In the New Law, Jesus' teaching on adultery also condemns
    a. anger
    b. revenge
    c. oaths
    d. lust

_____ 23. Meekness is a sign of weakness.

24. The portion of the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 6 says we need
    a. a clean heart, pure intentions, and trust in God
    b. to pray in public so others see
    c. wealth, power, and fame
    d. more rules and rituals

25. Which is one of the four strategies for resisting peer pressure?
    a. Go along once to fit in
    b. Always explain your reasons at length
    c. Only trust your gut instinct
    d. Stay away from situations that might tempt you

_____ 26. Priests live out their discipleship in service to the Church, and religious sisters, brothers, and priests live by the evangelical counsels together in community.

27. The corporal works of mercy are centered on caring for others'
    a. spiritual needs
    b. financial investments
    c. physical needs
    d. education

28. Which is a corporal work of mercy?
    a. Counsel the doubtful
    b. Visit the imprisoned
    c. Forgive offenses
    d. Pray for the living and the dead

_____ 29. The trouble with actions based on feelings is that the feelings may be out of touch with what is truly right or wrong.

30. Faith, hope, and charity are
    a. theological virtues infused by God
    b. gifts of the Holy Spirit
    c. cardinal virtues gained by effort
    d. fruits of the Holy Spirit

31. Which virtue helps fight greed, gluttony, and lust?
    a. Faith
    b. Temperance
    c. Prudence
    d. Justice

_____ 32. The cardinal virtues get their name from the Latin word for "hinge."

33. The greatest of all virtues is
    a. faith
    b. charity
    c. prudence
    d. hope

34. Which is NOT one of the ways to cultivate your faith?
    a. Celebrate the sacraments
    b. Avoid studying the Catholic faith
    c. Read the Bible
    d. Associate with people of faith

_____ 35. All individual Catholics are called to help the Church, local neighborhoods, and the nation examine their collective conscience.

36. Your vocation as a disciple begins at
    a. Baptism
    b. Confirmation
    c. Holy Orders
    d. First Communion

37. Offering up every moment of daily life and work, especially the difficulties, as spiritual sacrifices is the
    a. kingly office
    b. prophetic office
    c. priestly office
    d. office of bishop

_____ 38. A well-formed conscience can never make mistakes.

39. The evangelical counsels are
    a. poverty, chastity, and obedience
    b. prudence, justice, and temperance
    c. prayer, fasting, and almsgiving
    d. faith, hope, and charity

40. Benedictines, Trappists, and Carmelites are examples of
    a. apostolic orders
    b. contemplative orders
    c. fraternal organizations
    d. secular institutes

_____ 41. Developing spiritual disciplines includes identifying bad habits and conquering vices as well as acquiring virtues.

42. Conscience is the "most secret core and sanctuary" of a person, where
    a. you are alone with God
    b. the majority decides
    c. your parents' rules are stored
    d. your friends advise you

43. Which is NOT one of the things Vatican II says conscience is?

a. A law written on your heart by God
b. Binding: you will be judged by how you follow it
c. A summons to do good and avoid evil
d. A feeling about what seems right

_____ 44. Individual conscience is the final judge of what is morally right.

45. The second "E" in SEER stands for a. Examine

b. Evaluate
c. Elect
d. Execute

46. The true meaning of primacy of conscience is that

a. no one may force you to act contrary to your conscience
b. you may ignore Church teaching
c. everyone's conscience is always right
d. conscience outranks God's law

_____ 47. An examination of conscience is part of the contrition necessary for celebrating the Sacrament of Penance.

48. Which is NOT one of the CCC's factors that can lead to an erroneous conscience?

a. Lack of true repentance
b. Rejecting Church authority
c. Going to confession often
d. The bad example of other people

_____ 49. Negative peer pressure is what you feel when good friends inspire you to work hard and avoid trouble.

50. You and your friends sample beer and wine at a friend's house. This is

a. negative peer pressure
b. neutral peer pressure
c. not peer pressure
d. positive peer pressure

Part III: Essay

Directions: Answer ONE of the following prompts in 7 to 8 complete sentences. Circle the number of the prompt you choose.

1. How does Jesus fulfill the Old Law in the Sermon on the Mount? Use two of the six antitheses (Old Law to New Law) in your answer.
2. Describe the three kinds of peer pressure. Then explain how the virtue of fortitude helps a teenager resist negative peer pressure.
3. Compare the cardinal virtues and the theological virtues. Explain how practicing virtues forms a person of good character.

Answer Key: Practice Test B

Part I: Matching

1. F (fortitude)

2. H (gifts of the Holy Spirit)

3. O (vincible ignorance)

4. C (conscience)

5. A (agape)

6. B (Beatitudes)

7. L (peer pressure)

8. J (martyr)

9. G (fruits of the Holy Spirit)

10. K (metanoia)

11. I (invincible ignorance)

12. E (examination of conscience)

Part II: True/False and Multiple Choice

13. a. Blessed are the peacemakers. Peacemakers bring shalom.

14. T.

15. c. the poor in spirit. People who depend on God for every material and spiritual possession.

16. a. empathy. Thinking, feeling and acting from another's perspective and forgiving.

17. F. That is repentance.

18. c. will see God. Purity of heart is a precondition of the Beatific Vision.

19. b. bring flavor to the world and preserve what is good. Salt flavors and preserves food.

20. F. He came not to abolish but to fulfill it.

21. b. emphasizing its spirit and intent over a strict interpretation of the letter. He perfects it as a law of love.

22. d. lust. Lust is the inordinate desire that leads to sinful misuse of sexuality.

23. F. Meekness balances too much and too little anger.

24. a. a clean heart, pure intentions, and trust in God. Pure motivation and trust in God's goodness.

25. d. Stay away from situations that might tempt you. The four: know your standards, learn ways to say no, avoid tempting situations, pray.

26. T.

27. c. physical needs. Feed, give drink, clothe, shelter, visit the sick and imprisoned, bury the dead.

28. b. Visit the imprisoned. The others are spiritual works of mercy.

29. T.

30. a. theological virtues infused by God. They are not gained by human effort.

31. b. Temperance. Temperance moderates the appetites of the senses.

32. T. All other moral virtues hinge on them.

33. b. charity. Charity is love of God above all and neighbor as yourself.

34. b. Avoid studying the Catholic faith. Studying the faith is one of the ways.

35. T.

36. a. Baptism. Confirmation confirms and strengthens it; Holy Communion sustains it.

37. c. priestly office. Prophetic is proclaiming; kingly is self-mastery and service.

38. F. Even a well-formed conscience can make mistakes.

39. a. poverty, chastity, and obedience. Religious take vows to live them.

40. b. contemplative orders. Contemplative orders put primary emphasis on prayer.

41. T.

42. a. you are alone with God. Vatican II, Gaudium et Spes 16.

43. d. A feeling about what seems right. Conscience is not a feeling.

44. F. God's law is the final judge.

45. d. Execute. Study, Elect, Execute, Review.

46. a. no one may force you to act contrary to your conscience. Decisions of conscience must be free.

47. T.

48. c. Going to confession often. Frequent confession helps form conscience.

49. F. That is positive peer pressure.

50. a. negative peer pressure. Drinking alcohol is one of the "Everyone is doing it" behaviors, and temperance means avoiding alcohol before legal age.

Part III: Essay plans (one sentence each)

Prompt 1.

1. Topic sentence: Jesus does not abolish the Old Law; he fulfills it by stressing its spirit over the letter and making it a law of love.
2. Like Moses on Mount Sinai, Jesus teaches from a mount.
3. Antithesis 1: do not kill becomes control your anger and reconcile.
4. Why: anger festers into violence; the New Law goes to the heart.
5. Antithesis 2: an eye for an eye becomes turn the other cheek and love your enemies.
6. Why: revenge keeps the cycle of violence going; love ends it.
7. Closing: external observance is not enough; the New Law asks for a changed heart.

Prompt 2.

1. Topic sentence: peer pressure can be neutral, positive or negative, and fortitude gives the courage to resist the negative kind.
2. Neutral: fads with little lasting consequence (a style of clothes).
3. Positive: hardworking friends who inspire you to study.
4. Negative: pressure to do what you know is wrong; the excuse "Everyone is doing it."
5. Fortitude: firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of the good.
6. Built through self-denial, prayer and service; say no without justifying yourself.
7. Closing: fortitude helps a person care more about conscience than others' opinions.

Prompt 3.

1. Topic sentence: virtues are good habits that build character, and both kinds are needed for a moral life.
2. Cardinal: prudence, justice, fortitude, temperance; from cardo, "hinge."
3. They can be gained through human effort.
4. Theological: faith, hope, charity, infused by God; charity is the greatest.
5. They let a person relate to the Holy Trinity.
6. Good character: loving, fully human, virtuous; built choice by choice like an icicle.
7. Closing: grace and effort together make a person's character resemble Jesus.