Part III: Essay plans (one sentence each)

Prompt 1.

1. Topic sentence: the Beatitudes show what to do now to build attitudes that lead to lasting happiness with God.
2. Beatitude 1 (for example the merciful): empathy and forgiving with no strings attached.
3. Modern example: forgiving a friend who spread a rumor and not bringing it up again.
4. Beatitude 2 (for example the peacemakers): shalom, helping others enjoy all the good life offers.
5. Modern example: calming a fight in a group chat instead of taking a side.
6. The rewards are not only future; the Kingdom has a present dimension.
7. Closing: living the Beatitudes leads to the happiness God made us for.

Prompt 2.

1. Topic sentence: conscience is a practical judgment of reason that decides whether an action is good or evil; it must be formed and then followed.
2. Not a feeling: feelings can be out of touch with right and wrong.
3. Not majority opinion: it surrenders responsibility to the group.
4. Study the facts in Scripture and Church teaching; ask trusted mentors.
5. Elect a course of action with prayer.
6. Execute it (the true test) and Review it afterward.
7. Closing: conscience is where we are alone with God, so forming it is a lifelong task.

Prompt 3.

1. Topic sentence: ignorance can reduce guilt only when it truly cannot be overcome.
2. Invincible: incapable of being overcome despite effort, so not culpable.
3. Example: a child raised by parents who lie constantly does not know lying is wrong.
4. The act itself is still evil.
5. Vincible: could be overcome by seeking the truth, so culpable.
6. Example: a Catholic who never learns the Lenten Friday rules and eats meat.
7. Closing: always obey a certain conscience and keep forming it so ignorance is not an excuse.
